

Malone Central Schools

January 17, 2013

Mapping Our Students' Futures: Integrating the Common Core Standards Into Our Local School Curriculum

How can you use the Mapping to the Core Process to upgrade your curriculum and integrate the Common Core State Standards? During this practical interactive workshop, Dr. Ann Johnson, Director of Professional Development for Curriculum 21, will show - how the curriculum mapping process can be used to integrate the Common Core Standards into your local school curriculum and develop high quality units. Ann will share design strategies from a new LiveBook and LivePlanner that she co-authored with Dr. Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Mapping to the Core: Integrating the Common Core Standards into Your Local School Curriculum, School Improvement Network, 2012.

They include:

- Why Mapping to the Core: Laying the Foundation
- Making Sense of the Common Core State Standards - Definition
- Unwrapping the Common Core Standards to Determine the Nonnegotiables and Targeted Levels of Instruction
- Transitioning from Unwrapping the Common Core to integrating Them into High Quality Unit Maps
- Upgrading Units with 21st Century Skills and Digital Applications (as time permits)
- Aligning the Standards with All Curricular Areas
- Using the Process to Make Instructional Decisions
- Taking It Back: Strategies to Help Colleagues

Workshop Agenda

8:00-8:15 am	Introductions and Intended Outcomes
8:15-9:30 am	Mapping to the Core: integrating the Common Core into Our Local School Curriculum
9:30-9:45 am	Break
9:45-11:15 am	Making Sense of the Standards
11:15-12:00 pm	PreMapping Unit Activity
12:00-12:40 pm	Lunch
12:40-2:00 pm	Developing Unit Maps
2:00-3:00 pm	Strategies for Taking It Back

Please bring your laptop if you have one available and a unit on which you would like to work.